Sunday June 26 Readings

Reading I: I Kings 19: 16b, 19-21

Elijah starts his journey home only to meet his eventual successor Elisha. Elisha then abandons the companionship of his parents and easy access to food, ready to follow Elijah as his mentor.

Reading II: Galatians 5: 1, 13-18

The freedom Christ offers us is not to be confused with license. It is instead freedom from the law and all its material observances.

The Gospel: Luke 9: 51-62

There is cost attached to discipleship. Jesus uses hyperbole contained in the two proverbs He cites to get His listeners' attention. The cost is our taking on a totally new outlook on life, paired with an authentic detachment from the goods of the world.

Summer Message from Monsignor Christopher Hynes

Dear Parishioners:

Summer officially began on June 21 and, during this time of year, we have our minds set on some well-deserved rest and vacation. Fr. Stefano will leave tomorrow June 27 and return at the end of July to visit his family in Korea and attend a Conference on Marriage Encounter in California. I will travel in August to New England for retreat and vacation. At some of the Masses this summer there will be no music when Don & Suzanne Pennell take vacation time off.

Here at the parish, we have concluded the “academic” year and, thankfully, in spite of a serious third Omicron variant that arrived in Advent and continued through February, we accomplished many of our goals for the year. At this point in the calendar, the staff and I will spend some significant time assessing our work over the past year, while looking to improve how we serve the parish studying the upcoming year.

I am especially thankful for our new Faith Formation team as we returned to in-seat religious classes and for our newly developed curriculum for the Confirmation program. We concluded the Archdiocesan Synod process and learned many helpful insights from the participants. I will invite the participants to return in October and have a conversation on the sessions and how they may be more involved in the life of the parish.

I hope and pray that all of our parishioners have a pleasant and restful summer. I respectfully also ask you to remember to continue your support of Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament when you are traveling.

Sincerely yours,
Monsignor Chris

FOOD DRIVE – Despite the challenges we all face with the Covid virus, the OLBS food drive continues in order to support the food pantry at Blessed Sacrament Church, Newark.
Thank you to everyone who donated this week to the food drive.

Please mark your calendars for the upcoming dates:

July 9th & 10th

Items always needed include: cereal, peanut butter, jelly, tomato sauce, mac & cheese, canned meats, canned tuna, pasta, canned fruits, juice, Parmalat milk, powdered milk. Cash donations are also accepted, by indicating FOOD DRIVE on the envelope.

We would like to thank the Roseland Post Office for holding a food drive in support of our recent monthly food collection. Because of their generous efforts we delivered on May 15th two additional full carloads of food to Blessed Sacrament in Newark.
Thank you!

Mission Appeal 2022 (Archdiocese of Imphal, India) This Weekend

The mission Diocese of Imphal in Northeast India is home to 34 tribes of Mongolian origin. The first Catholic baptism in the diocese was recorded in 1952. The Catholic population has grown up to 1, 01283 now. The diocese has 45 parishes, and 8 Mission Centers, 174 priests including 114 indigenous tribal priests. The growth of the Church has always been accompanied by various challenges and persecutions during the past decades. Between 1990 – 2001, six of our young and dynamic missionaries were killed for witnessing the gospel.

Besides direct evangelization, the Church is actively involved in the everyday life of the people through other forms of apostolate like education, health care, self-help program, rehabilitation of the sick, drug addicts and the orphans. Much remains to be done for this interior and underdeveloped region through your participation and generous support.

In spite of the many challenges, missionary efforts are yielding an increase in vocation to priesthood and religious life. The proceeds of the 2022 Mission appeal will be used for providing food, safe drinking water facilities, primary education of tribal girls and health care for the rural tribal population in the newly established parish of St. John in Nungba.

Thank you for your generous support for the implementation of this humanitarian project. Thank you Rev. Jose Manjakunnel for representing archdiocese of Imphal and for speaking at all masses.

Summertime Reading

Some book suggestions from Our Sunday Visitor: <https://www.osv.com/>

Preschoolers:

- “Animal Folk Tales of America” by Tony Palazzo
- “James Harriot's Treasury for Children” Macmillan young Listeners
- “How to heal a broken wing” by Bob Graham
- “In the Forest” by Marie Hall Ets

Young Children:

- “The Princess and the Goblin” by George MacDonald
- “The Children’s Homer” by Padraic Colum
- “The Penderwicks” by Jeanne Birdsall
- “First Farm in the Valley” by Anna Pellowski

Tweens:

- “Anne of Green Gables” by L.M. Montgomery
- “The Hobbit” by J.R.R. Tolkien
- “Where the Red Fern Grows” by Wilson Rawls
- “A View from Saturday” by E.L. Konigsburg

Teens:

- “The Hiding Place” by Corrie Ten Boom
- “The Lord of the Rings” J.R.R. Tolkien
- “The Odyssey” by Homer
- “The Great Divorce” by C.S. Lewis

One way to keep your children engaged in the joy of summer reading is to create relaxing spaces and exciting opportunities to enjoy a great book. Here are a few ideas to spark your creativity!

- 1) Encourage your children to read aloud to younger siblings or the family pet! This will help build fluency and confidence, especially in more reluctant readers.
- 2) Keep boxes around the house (especially in the cozy corners) with a variety of books from the library, adding in new books from time to time.
- 3) Plan a picnic and encourage everyone to bring a book to enjoy in the shade after lunch.
- 4) Build a fort outside for readers to relax in (blankets and lawn chairs make for dreamy outdoor reading spaces).
- 5) Serve up smoothies or lemonade before encouraging your children to find a peaceful spot to sip, read, and relax.
- 6) Set up the tent for an evening of flashlight reading.
- 7) Select a read-aloud to share around a bonfire.

God of all goodness, You have entrusted us with the gift of life. Help us to appreciate the gift that life is. Send your strength to all those who defend life. May Your Holy Spirit touch the hearts of those who are tempted to choose the way of death rather than life. Grant that Your people may always be a sign of love in the world. Amen.
